Welcoming the SCHOOL SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME: A Legacy of Faith and Education Joins the Augustinian Family.

The Augustinian Federation in Africa (AFA) joyfully welcomes the congregation of the School Sisters of Notre Dame (SSND) into its esteemed fold. In a formal letter dated 29th August, 2024, the School Sisters of Notre Dame expressed their desire to join the Federation, highlighting that "our charism flows from our spiritual heritage, especially the gift of St. Augustine, who formed community to be of one heart and one soul in God...". Following the outcome of the AFA Executive Council meeting held on 7th September 2024, the President of the Augustinian Federation in Africa, Rev. Fr. Kenneth Udochukwu Eze, OSA, expressed AFA's approval and extended a warm welcome to the SSND into the AFA family.

The congregation of SSND was founded by Blessed Theresa Gerhardinger, born on June 20, 1797, in Stadtamhof, Bavaria, Germany. Driven by a deep sense of mission and the desire to educate young girls, she established a small community of sisters on October 24, 1833, in Neunburg vorm Wald, Bavaria. Over the years, the SSND have expanded their reach globally, with their ministries spanning across over thirty countries, including Ghana, Nigeria, Kenya, The Gambia, and Sierra Leone. Their commitment to education, spiritual guidance, and holistic development is rooted in their Augustinian spirituality, aligning perfectly with the mission of AFA.

The Augustinian federation in Africa looks forward to a fruitful service with the SSND through their active participation in the different AFA programs and initiatives. Their presence in AFA will not only enrich our collective mission but also hope to deepen the unity of mind and heart that defines our Augustinian spirituality.

In 1952, six Augustinians of the Belgian Province arrived in the Belgian Congo to start a mission. In 1959, other Augustinian Friars from Germany joined them. After the founding of "Congo Federation" by the two Provinces of Belgium and Germany in 1993, they created "the Vicariate of Congo in 1995. Despite the wars and rebellions which continued (1964-1966, 1996-1997 and 1998-2003) their efforts bore fruit for the local Church and also for the Order.

THE VICARIATE OF CONGO (DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO) IN 2024

The Vicariate of Congo currently has five convents: Amadi, Poko, Dungu, Buta, Kinshasa and manages two parishes and a sanctuary of Saint Rita of Cascia in Kinshasa, 3 private schools in (Kinshasa, Dungu and Poko).

Currently the Vicariate of Congo counts 50 brothers in solemn vows with 44 priests included, 24 brothers in simple profession, 8 novices, 9 postulants and 26 seminarians. This confirms that the Vicariate of Congo is prolific in local vocation.

Vicariate has five vicars:

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS IN THE VICARIATE IN 2024

It was on April 15th 2024 that the Vicariate of Congo received with surprise the appointment of Father Martin, until then Vicar since 2022, Bishop of the diocese of Buta. This news disrupted certain planned activities of the Vicariate, among others:

- Change in the head of Vicariate. The provisional appointment of the new Vicar in replacement of Father Martin before even the midterm of his mandate. Thus Father Olivier GANGOLA BAWA who was first Counselor was appointed Vicar to lead the Vicariate until the election of the new Vicar.
- Cancellation of the intermediate chapter of the Vicariate, which was to be held in July 2024 in Kisangani; occasioning the celebration of the Vicariate ordinary chapter in January 2025 after the new vicar is elected. The episcopal ordination of Mgr Martin BANGA took place on Sunday July 7th, 2024 in Buta by His Eminence Cardinal Fridolin Ambongo BESUNGU, Archbishop of Kinshasa and the two co-consecrators Mgr Marcel UTEMBI TAPA metropolitan bishop of Kisangani and outgoing president of the episcopal conference of Congo (CENCO), and Mgr Mitja New apostolic nuncio to Congo with the presence of several other bishops of the ecclesiastical province of Kisangani including priests, religious men and women, civil, military and police authorities as well and other religious congregations (non-Catholics).

Bishop Martin BANGA, OSA succeeds Bishop Joseph BANGA Bane who retired after 25 years of episcopate.

SISTERS OF MARY OF KAKAMEGA

Sisters of Mary of Kakamega (SMK) is a Religious Congregation that was founded with the aim of spreading the Good News and fostering the education of the African women so as to uplift their standards of living in a world where they seemed to be completely marginalized by their male counterparts.

The Congregation was started by the late Bishop Brandsma, a Mill Hill Missionary in 1932 in the Diocese of Kakamega in Kenya. He requested the help of the Ursuline Sisters from Bergen-Holland as to assist with the religious formation of the African girls who wished to become sisters. Some of these young girls were also trained as religious nuns to help other girls and women to learn to be self-sufficient in order to enhance and improve their standards of living.

Highlights from Augustinian Week in Kenya

This year's Augustinian week that took place in our international theology house based in Karen Nairobi – Kenya begun on 13th May 2024 with a morning mass that was presided over by Rev. Fr. Kolawole Chabi OSA, the facilitator of the week. Fr. Kolawole is an expert in the field of Augustinian Studies and is based in Rome, working at the Pontifical Patristic Institute AUGUSTINIANUM. In physical attendance were The Sisters of Mary of Kakamega (SMK), and the Augustinian Missionary Sisters. The event was also aired live via zoom meeting and was attended by the School Sisters of Notre Dame (SSND) from Ghana, Sr. Eunice, Sr. Monica among others. Several people also joined from Kenya and Nigeria even

Revolving around the topic "AUGUSTINE AND CULTURAL DIALOGUE: Theoretical foundation, Method and Practice", the week has been a wonderful moment of growth, a moment of encountering St. Augustine in his works as a man who dialogues, not just a teacher but also a student, not only a speaker but also a good listener. Fr. Kolawole started the week with some general considerations on dialogue, indicating the various postures people could adopt in dialogue: rejection, indifference, tolerance, acceptance, etc. Afterwards, he delved into Augustine, theoretical framework, this method and final practice of dialogue in concrete terms.

He emphasized that St. Augustine believes in dialogue as the method of bringing out ideas of the people. He listens, he learns and out of the contribution of the interlocutor he dialogue always starting from what he has in common with them and from there he tried to expose what the Catholic faith is.

The Augustinian week was a wonderful moment of intellectual, social, physical and spiritual growth. The week ended with a Holy Mass presided over by Rev. Fr. Kolawole Chabi, OSA. Then followed by exchange of best wishes, communion in a sumptuous meal, joyful moments and sharing of gifts. We extend our gratitude to Rev. Fr. Kolawole for his tremendous preparation and presentation throughout the week, we give an applause to all the attendees. A lot of gratitude also goes to Rev. Fr. Peter Imaji OSA for his hard work and resilience in organizing and seeing to it that the program was a success. We are delightful to the bursar of the community for his availability in providing all that was needed throughout the week and finally thank the Prior of the community for such a hospitality and serene environment. On the part of the technical team, we extent our well-wishes and blessings for the smooth flow of the events. We ask St. Augustine to always intercede for our unity, communion and growth, and may Almighty Father always bless the Augustinian Fraternity.

gets to appreciate the knowledge of the speaker. As a method of teaching and learning, the dialogical method of St. Augustine is a fundamental approach to seeking what is true. He put this method in use with a wide range of interlocutors: Pagans philosopher (Platonists), Jews, and Heretics prominent among which are the Manicheans, the Donatists and the Pelagians. With each of these groups, Augustine sought to engage in a fair
